

Young Europeans

Good practices and ideas for the future

Conference November 17-20, 2009

"Young Europeans: good practices and ideas for the future" Varese, nov 17-20, 2009

The project "European active citizenship: renewable energy"

Aims

- Raise the awareness of the importance of being european active citizens
- Enhance young people's active participation
- Create a network between organisations

The project "European active citizenship: renewable energy"

Participation of young people

- in entrepreneurial activities
- in volunteering
- in politics
- in the new EU countries

The project "European active citizenship: renewable energy"

Rotterdam, September 28-30, 2009

- Coordinators' meeting
- Local situations about youth participation
- Good practices
- Preparation of the Varese conference

The project "European active citizenship: renewable energy"

Varese, November 17-20, 2009

Who?

- Young people from the 4 countries
- Volunteers and workers of the non-profit sector
- Workers of the local institutions

The project "European active citizenship: renewable energy"

Varese, November 17-20, 2009

What?

- Debate with experts
- Presentation of good practices

The project "European active citizenship: renewable energy"

Varese, November 17-20, 2009

What?

Thursday

- Workshops

- ◻ What are the similarities and differences between the countries?
- ◻ How can we increase youth participation in this topic? What is missing?
- ◻ How can the older generations transmit their competences to the younger ones so that these can overtake the role of building the society?
- ◻ Which added value do young people give to this topic?

Friday

- Final conference

Ville Ponti

The project "European active citizenship: renewable energy"

Varese, November 17-20, 2009

And...

- Info corner
- Partner search platform
- Exhibition "Giovani nel volontariato"

The project "European active citizenship: renewable energy"

After Varese...?

Publication of the results:

- Local situations about youth participation
- Good practices
- Results of the workshops